Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet, sea ea illud vivendo, iudico laudem conestetur at vis, petentium forensibus nam at, ex voluptas adversarium ullamcorper his.

Law enforcement agencies across the St. Louis region shall consolidate contiguous jurisdictions. For the purpose of the consolidation process, the agencies shall designate anchor departments through an evaluation process, which determines the department that best fits standards corresponding to the "vision for policing" in the St. Louis Region" set forth by the Commission. Consolidation clusters may include those enumerated in the Police Executive Research Forum report "Overcoming the Challenges and Creating a Regional Approach to Policing in St. Louis City and County" (PERF Report).

Accountable Bodies: County Council, SCLPD, Affiliated Political Subdivisions, Missouri Legislature, Missouri Police Chiefs Charitable Foundation, POST

I Got a Job Interview
Tag: Jobs St. Louis Human.
August 3rd 2015

"I got a job interview. I'm going to wear a white button up, black socks, and some black shoes. Get rice and peas, take a 2-hour bath, and make sure I smell real good. This is my second interview. The first one went well so they wouldn't have ever called me for the second one. I'm just trying to find any door that will open for me."

"What's a question you hope they ask you at the interview?"

"When are you ready to start?"

My mom is like my mom, dad and everything basically
Tag: Jobs St. Louis Human.
August 3rd 2015

"My mom is like my mom, dad, and everything basically. She cooks a lot. And I always wanted to learn how to cook because of her. So, I'm hoping she'll show me how to make bread because my mom is known for her bread in her town. It's very bad, as in unhealthy-ish. But it's good. You hate it and love it at the same time. She makes it her way. When someone else makes the same thing, it's just not the same thing. Even my grandma, I go to her for certain foods. If my mom tries to make them, it doesn't work. It's that different love that's in there. It just feels different and tastes different."

I Got a Job Interview
Tag: Jobs St. Louis Human.
August 3rd 2015

"I got a job interview. I'm going to wear a white button up, black socks, and some black shoes. Get rice and peas, take a 2-hour bath, and make sure I smell real good. This is my second interview. The first one went well so they wouldn't have ever called me for the second one. I'm just trying to find any door that will open for me."

"What's a question you hope they ask you at the interview?"

"When are you ready to start?"

My mom is like my mom, dad and everything basically
Tag: Jobs St. Louis Human.
August 3rd 2015

"My mom is like my mom, dad, and everything basically. She cooks a lot. And I always wanted to learn how to cook because of her. So, I'm hoping she'll show me how to make bread because my mom is known for her bread in her town. It's very bad, as in unhealthy-ish. But it's good. You hate it and love it at the same time. She makes it her way. When someone else makes the same thing, it's just not the same thing. Even my grandma, I go to her for certain foods. If my mom tries to make them, it doesn't work. It's that different love that's in there. It just feels different and tastes different."

Women are powerful

Tags: Jutta St. Louis Human.

Pages: 1, 2, 3, 4

"I've been here more than 10 years. I come from Afghanistan. Women in Afghanistan are mainly struggling with domestic violence. They're victims of this, and in the U.S.I have seen women struggling with this too. But women are powerful. We have a group of women that come here from Afghanistan. These are women that don't have school education. But it was so amazing, some of them came to the group and said they tried a van and just went to Chicago for two weeks. These are women who cannot write their names in English, but they know how to drive a bus, and they went to Chicago. They stayed in a hotel and came back to St. Louis. When I asked them, 'How did you do that?' I could not. Their response was, 'We were excited. We crossed three oceans. We came to the United States all the way from Afghanistan, and you think we cannot find our way to Chicago?' I said, 'I'm sorry! I'm just seeing you in the same mirror as I see myself.' They said, 'We are survivors. We are survivors of war and torture. We can find our way.' And they're right. When you're decisive, you can do what you want to do. Language barriers cannot stand in your way. Culture barriers cannot stand in your way. Spiritual barriers cannot stand in your way."
